

Butterflies

Intro

You knew I wanted ya
and that was plain to see.
You sought to impress me
You would not let me be.
Out on the dance floor
You sached up to me
Looking so damn fine
You really blow my mind.

When on the Internet
I have no privacy
You chat or blog me
You will not let me be.
Turned off my cell phone
'cause you keep texting me
It must be a sign
You're wanting all my time

Chorus1:

Don't know what came over me
When I met ya
But I felt butterflies,
I felt butterflies.
You really put a spell on me
and I let ya
A sparkle in my eyes
A complete surprise.

You knew I wanted ya
and that was plain to see.
You sought to impress me
You would not let me be.
Out on the dance floor
You sached up to me
Looking so damn fine
You really blow my mind.

When on the Internet
I have no privacy
You chat or blog me
You will not let me be.
Turned off my cell phone
'cause you keep texting me
It must be a sign
You're wanting all my time.

Chorus2:

Don't know what came over me
When I met ya
But I felt butterflies,
I felt butterflies.
You really put a spell on me
and I let ya
A sparkle in my eyes
A complete surprise.

Don't know what came over me
When I met ya
But I felt butterflies,
I felt butterflies.
You really put a spell on me
and I let ya
A sparkle in my eyes
A complete surprise.
