

Long Distance Lover

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
I need my lover, by my side
I can't be, your long distance lover
even though my nose is open wide.

On the train to Tulsa
I met a beautiful girl
When I first laid my eyes on her she really rocked my world.
I started breathing heavy
I was out of control
I said could you be my lover if it's not too bold.

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
won't you just let me be
I can't be, your long distance lover
you don't have a dance with me.

When we got to Tulsa
She didn't meet no man
I thought it was a chance for me to take her hand.
I asked her could she meet me for a night on the town she just smiled and laughed at me and politely turned me down.

Ooo, it hurt so bad to know that she didn't want me Ooo, it made me sad to know that our love could never be.
Ooo, she could have been kind
But she broke my heart
I guess my love was blind
'cause she blow my mind.

I guess this is a lesson for all the players out there If you get too anxious have some savoir faire.
You might miss your chance if you take a bit too long Take a moment ask yourself what the hell went wrong.

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
I need my lover, by my side
I can't be, your long distance lover
even though my nose is open wide.

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
won't you just let me be
I can't be, your long distance lover
you don't have a dance with me.

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
I need my lover, by my side
I can't be, your long distance lover
even though my nose is open wide.

I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause I have to protect my heart
I can't be, your long distance lover
So I'll stop tripping, from the start.
I can't be, your long distance lover
so please just let me be.
I can't be, your long distance lover
'cause you live too far from me.
