

Someday

Life is the same, If we keep playing this game
You're so far from home and I'm living alone
Life is too hard to make it apart
We're going down for the count

I'm happy we met
I have no regret, but
my heart must be free
Or I can't be me
I'm calling a truce
Ba-by it is no use
'cause your heart is
too far away

Someday, we'll be to-gether
On a bright and sunny day
Someday, we'll fall in love again
And you'll never, want to leave my side
Someday, we'll be to-gether
On a starry night in June
Someday, you'll run back to my arms
And we'll dance the night away.

Who is the blame, if you keep changing the game
You will be living alone 'cause I will be gone
You played the last card
You've broken my heart
We're going down for the count

I'm happy we met
I have no regret, but
my heart must be free
Or I can't be me
I'm calling a truce
Ba-by It is no use
'cause your heart is
too far away

Someday, we'll be to-gether
On a bright and sunny day
Someday, we'll fall in love again
And you'll never, want to leave my side
Someday, we'll be to-gether
On a starry night in June
Someday, you'll run back to my arms
And we'll dance the night away
