

Like A Butterfly

I flew like a butterfly yesterday
 I saw many things along the way
 I flew above the clouds and felt the sun
 I saw the Pearly Gates of heaven.

Why I flew so high is a mystery
 Floating on the wind I felt so free.
 In and out of the clouds, I did my dance
 Up and Up into the sky to get a glance.

Like a butterfly, I fly
 I flutter high to the sky.
 Over clouds to reach the sun
 Early morn' when the day's begun
 Like a butterfly, I soar
 A thousand miles above the floor.
 So higher and higher I fly
 On my journey to the sky.

Now and then and even now, I feel alone
 With no money and no honey I flew from home.
 If I die tomorrow there will be no grave.
 No penny earned, no penny saved.

So higher and higher, I will fly
 With each flutter I will sing goodbye.
 The sun will change from moon to sun and back again
 Then my journey to the sky
 Crashes to an end.

Like a butterfly, I fly
 I flutter high to the sky.
 Over clouds to reach the sun
 Early morn' when the day's begun
 Like a butterfly, I soar
 A thousand miles above the floor.
 So higher and higher I fly
 On my journey to the sky.

If I take to flight tomorrow
 What wonders will I see
 The Pearly Gates will open
 I'd see my family.
 Into their arms I would fly
 Caress them with my wings
 Peace, love, and happiness
 I'd hear the angels sing.

Fly high, like a butterfly
Go ahead and spread your wings
Up in the sky you will hear
A thousand angels sing
Fly high, like a butterfly
Take flight, in day or night
Over clouds to see the sun
So beautiful is the light.

Like a butterfly, I fly
I flutter high to the sky.
Over clouds to reach the sun
Early morn' when the day's begun
Like a butterfly, I soar
A thousand miles above the floor.
So higher and higher I fly
On my journey to the sky.

Like a butterfly, I fly
I flutter high to the sky.
Over clouds to reach the sun
Early morn' when the day's begun
Like a butterfly, I soar
A thousand miles above the floor.
So higher and higher I fly
On my journey to the sky.
